Customer Copyright Statement

Dalcon Visual Arts adheres to copyright law. We also assume that our customers will not knowingly use our copying services and equipment to infringe upon copyright.

You should be aware of the following:

- Copyright pictures works of literature, art, and music
- Unless you are the copyright owner, a licensee, or otherwise authorized, you may infringe on copyright if you copy portions of a copyrighted work
- One exception to this rule is known as 'fair dealing' for the purposes of research, private study, criticism, review or newspaper reporting.

The law of copyright and fair dealing is complex. If in doubt, you should consult a lawyer. Dalcon Visual Arts cannot advise you about the law.

We reserve the right to refuse to copy any work. We will not copy the whole or substantial part of any book without express written authorization from the owner or licensee.

If you wish to copy more than 10% of any work, please tell us why by checking the appropriate circle below. Proof of authorization may be required.

- I am the copyright owner of this work.
- I am licensed or otherwise authorized to make copies of this work.
- I am requesting one copy of this work for the purpose of:
 - Research
 - Private Study
 - Criticism or Review
 - Newspaper Reporting

We will make only one copy of a work if the stated purpose is fair dealing.
